Stuart Armstrong is a representative of Centinel Financial Group, LLC's office in Boston's South End. Stuart has been in the financial services industry since 1986. He provides comprehensive financial planning for individuals, families, and business owners. Plans are designed to integrate the client's goals with the objective of providing solutions in the areas of wealth accumulation, asset protection and retirement income. Stuart graduated from Allegheny College in Meadville, Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology. Anxious to continue his education, Stuart obtained various industry designations, including:

CFP[®] (Certified Financial Planner[®])
ChFC[®] (Chartered Financial Consultant[®])
CLU[®] (Chartered Life Underwriter[®])
CLTC (Certified in Long Term Care)

In his spare time, Stuart is active in volunteering for various Boston area non-profit groups. Stuart can often be seen skiing, off to the movies and plays or out in his growing garden. Stuart has lived in the Boston area for over twenty years and he currently resides in Milton with his partner, Mike, and cats, Tom and Geo.
