Amber Brochu is a representative of Centinel Financial Group LLC. She focuses her practice on assisting individuals, families and business owners in the accumulation and protection of wealth.

Following in the footsteps of her father, uncle and grandfather, her goal is to help clients take control of their financial lives and make sound decisions as they move through the different stages of life, such as: starting a family, building a business, changing careers or preparing for retirement. Each stage of life requires a different blend of financial strategies and products, and we have the experience and team to help them achieve their goals.
