Diane Graca has been associated with John Hancock Financial Network for twelve years. She was recruited by her business partner, Albert Kandarian, Jr., CLU, ChFC (who has been with John Hancock for over 40 years). Diane and Al consider it an honor and privilege to assist people with their financial needs. They believe there are three standards to follow when working with clients. First, confidentiality is the cornerstone of their business; each client's relationship is distinctly separate and private. Second, thoughtful and courteous service is always a top priority. Third, all of their clients are treated with the utmost respect and dignity, and will never be given financial recommendations without a thorough understanding of his or her needs.

Diane is actively involved in the financial services industry, including the Financial Planning Association-Massachusetts Chapter (FPA), the Society of Financial Services Professionals-Rhode Island Chapter and NAIFA-Rhode Island. She is a past Board Member of the Bristol County Estate Planning Council and is Vice-President of the John Hancock Professional Association.

Diane is equally involved in her local community. She is a founding Board Member and Treasurer for the Young Women's Financial Network, as well as a Summer Program Instructor. She is a proud member of the Attleboro Area Chamber of Commerce, the Women at Work Museum of Attleboro, and a contributor to the Hockomock Area YMCA. She volunteers for the Girl Scouts of Southeastern Massachusetts, serves as a Pre-School Program Teacher for the St. Francis of Assisi Church and is a PTO Board Member for the Wilbur Elementary School.

Diane lives in Somerset, MA with her husband, John, and daughters, Alyssa and Cassie. Diane prides herself in her integrity, and is dedicated to making a difference in the lives of people she meets.
