Gregory McLaughlin is a Financial Consultant and Director of Education and Training for Centinel Financial Group, LLC, a member of the John Hancock Financial Network. Greg joined Centinel Financial Group after receiving his Bachelor's degree in Finance from Bentley College in Waltham, MA. Shortly after joining the firm, Greg acquired the CFP® designation, and he has built his business using a holistic approach in helping his clients plan for their future.

Greg believes in providing comprehensive financial solutions to meet the needs of his clients. He helps individuals, families and businesses realize their financial goals through an extensive network of experienced professionals. Greg can provide a wide array of products and services and is committed to help meet the unique financial goals of his clients.

As an advocate of the insurance and investment industry, and former high school basketball coach, he has committed himself to the training and development of new professionals to the business. Greg's patience and interpersonal skills, coupled with his desire to be a resource to his clients, and trainees have been the basis on which he has built his practice. He prides himself in his integrity, his ethical behavior and his dedication to making a profound difference in the lives that he touches.

Greg was born in Quincy, MA. He was raised, and currently resides, in Randolph, MA with his fiancé Christin. As an active member of his community, he sits on the South Shore Day Care Center's Board of Directors, and is involved in teaching with Citizen's Schools. Greg is also a member of the FPA and NAIFA. He enjoys running, golfing and playing basketball.
