John M. McLaughlin, Jr. is a representative of Centinel Financial Group, LLC, a member of the John Hancock Financial Network. John joined the firm after receiving his bachelor's degree in Business in 2000 from Plymouth State University in Plymouth, New Hampshire.

John believes in providing comprehensive financial solutions to meet the needs of his clients. He helps individuals, families, and business owners realize their financial goals through a client centered approach and using the resources of our extensive network of experienced professionals. John can provide a wide array of products and services and is committed to help meet the unique financial goals of his clients.

In addition to working with his own client base, John manages a group of new representatives. As an advocate of the insurance and investment industry, he has committed himself to the training and development of professionals who are new to the business. John's patience and interpersonal skills, coupled with his desire to be a resource to his clients and trainees have been the basis on which he has built his practice. He prides himself in his integrity, his ethical behavior and his dedication to making a profound difference in the lives that he touches.

As an active member of his community and former college football standout, John continually volunteers his time and knowledge with local high schools and youth football clinics. John is an active member of NAIFA. He was born in East Bridgewater, Massachusetts and currently resides, in Weymouth, MA. He enjoys playing sports and spending time with his family.
