Cory Norbutus is a financial representative with Centinel Financial Group, LLC. Cory graduated from the University of Massachusetts in Amherst, MA with a Bachelors degree in Exercise Science in 2004.

Cory works with businesses, individuals, and families as a trusted resource and partner to help them become better educated, organized and prepared to realize their intentions and available opportunities. The benefit to her clients is that they feel more clear and confident in their financial security and their chosen lifestyle. Cory believes insurance is a vital component of one's financial program. In addition to her background in life and disability income insurance, Cory also has a focus on long-term care insurance.

Cory currently resides in Watertown, MA with her daughter. She enjoys spending time with her daughter and maintains a healthy lifestyle by promoting fitness and wellness as a fitness trainer.
