Ruth Petty is a representative of Centinel Financial Group, LLC. In 2000, Ruth obtained her Master of Science in Financial Services. In 1993, she obtained her Master of Science in Management (MSM). She is a member of the American Bar Association and numerous other professional organizations.

Ruth utilizes a personalized approach with her clients, as she believes in building long-lasting relationships that are built on mutual respect. She takes the time to understand the specific needs of her clients, and she works to develop creative solutions to help her clients realize their full potential and reach their financial goals. Whether it is a young family just starting out, a professional with a demanding career, or a couple about to enter retirement, Ruth can implement a wide range of products and services tailored to suit their individual situation.

In addition to being the author of numerous journal and newspaper articles and professional textbooks, she is also a seminar speaker. Her focus is comprehensive financial planning, with a concentration in retirement planning. Currently Ms. Petty is working on a book focusing on "women as financial decision makers."

In the February 2010 issue of Boston Magazine, Ruth was named a FIVE STAR Wealth ManagerSM after an independent survey was conducted with high-net worth individuals and magazine subscribers in the Greater Boston Area.

Ruth enjoys hiking and volunteers her time with various charitable organizations.
